Rollo: Study

What is Study?

Study, for the purposes of this rollo and as the second leg of the tripod, is the process through which we come to know God better and to discover what He wants of us.

Action is based on a meaningful prayer life of Piety and directed through study.

Heart: Piety

Mind: Study

Will: Action

Study is what aims our action.

Two versions of Christianity exist because there are also two classes of persons that exist:

One type of Christian is one who is in her comfort zone

The other type of Christian is one who is pro-active.

Object of our Study:

A. OURSELVES

METANOIA – conversion of mind and heart

1. Obstacles

- a. Pride
- b. Cowardice
- c. Sinfulness
- d. Intolerance (i.e. Narrow-Mindedness)
- e. Childishness

Object of our Study:

A. OURSELVES

METANOIA – conversion of mind and heart

2. Remedies:

- a. Humility
- b. Courage
- c. Sincerity
- d. Meditation

Object of our Study

B. GOD

St. Augustine said, "Lord Jesus, let me know myself and know You."

Jesus must also be the focus of our study.

Ways in which we can know God:

- 1. Creation
- 2. Scriptures
- 3. Teachings of the Church
- 4. Numerous Other Ways

Other Ways of Knowing God

- Media
- Arts
- Events of everyday life in this world
- Read five pages of a Catholic book a day (WE can do that!)
 - 5 pages x 365 days = 1,825 pages
 - 1,825 pages x 10 years = 18,250 pages
 - 18,250 pages x 2.50 decades = 45,625 pages

Books

- Catholic Catechism for Adults
- Catechism of the Catholic Church
- The Holy Bible
- The New Testament
- The Four Signs of a Dynamic Catholic
- Rediscover Catholicism
- Many More
